1. Final judgment shall not be entered so long as payments are made as provided.
2. Upon filing herein of a SWORN, NOTARIZED affidavit by the creditor(s), or any of them if more than one, that the payments have not been made at the time as agreed, Creditor(s) may have final Judgment against debtor(s) without notice to the debtor(s) for the amount of damages and costs stated by the affidavit or otherwise found by the Court to be due and unpaid. Or, if this suit is for other than money damages, for the relief sued for in the claim, complaint, or other pleading herein.
3. If no Final Judgment has been entered herein, if no affidavit of nonpayment has been filed herein, if this case has not been dismissed sooner, and when 30 days have passed after the time of making the last payment provided for herein, this Stipulation shall constitute a voluntary dismissal of the claim complaint, and of the counterclaim, if any, filed herein, and a consent to the release of any bond involved in the cause.
