

PLANT: Poison Hemlock
(Conium maculatum L.)

Biennial

Proposed for County
Noxious list, not on Montana State List

Growth: 6-8 Feet Tall

I.D. Stems are erect and spotted purple.
Leaves are shiny green.
Leaves are fern like.
Flowers are white.
Flowers are made up of many umbrella-like clusters.

Others: This plant can be found in pastures and crop land.
Most often found along ditch and stream banks.

ALL PARTS OF THIS PLANT ARE POISONOUS!
HUMANS HAVE BEEN POISONED BY MISTAKING IT FOR PARSLEY.